

I encourage the FCC to permit the satellite radio service to continue and not be attacked by the "local" broadcasters. Satellite Radio provides me with a selection of programs that are not "forced upon me", but rather chosen by me for their timely content.

Please let satellite radio continue to serve that market which they are carving out a niche in and do not let the more powerful companies silence them.